(4) In the case of a person to whom section 141(2)(d), 149(4), 210(2) and 214(2) apply, a person, being one of a married couple or of a civil partnership who are not living together, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse or civil partner where the spouse or civil partner is not a cohabitant of another person and the first-mentioned person is contributing towards the maintenance of his or her spouse or civil partner by a weekly amount which is equal to or in excess of the amount set down in column (3) of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act.

<sup>90</sup> Art 6 and 7 substituted by Art 3 S.I. No. 604/11

(5) A person, being –

- (a) a single person,
- (b) a widow,
- (c) a widower,
- (d) a married person who is not living with and is neither wholly or mainly maintaining, nor being wholly or mainly maintained by, such married person's spouse,
- (e) a surviving civil partner, or
- (f) a civil partner who is not living with and is neither wholly or mainly maintaining, nor being wholly or mainly maintained by, his or her civil partner, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining another person where that other person, being over the age of 16 years and having the care of one or more than one qualified child of the first-mentioned person, resides with the first-mentioned person and his or her weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed €100.

(6) In sub-articles (1) and (2) 'couple' means –

- (a) a married couple who are living together,
- (b) both civil partners of a civil partnership who are living together, or
- (c) both cohabitants.<sup>91</sup>

Calculation of income limit.

8. (1) For the purposes of article 7, weekly income shall, subject to this article, be calculated or estimated –

- (a) insofar as it comprises earnings from employment as an employee, by reference to the weekly average of the gross amount of all such earnings received in the previous 2 months where such earnings are received at monthly intervals or in the previous 6 weeks where such earnings are received at weekly or fortnightly intervals,
- (b) insofar as it comprises income from any form of self-employment, by reference to the weekly amount of such income calculated or estimated by dividing the income in the last complete income tax year by 52,
- (c) insofar as it consists of income from property (other than property referred to in paragraph (d)) which is invested or otherwise put to profitable use or which, though capable of investment or profitable use, is not invested or put to profitable use, by reference to the weekly value of the property, calculated as follows –

- (i) the first €20,000 of the capital value of the property shall be excluded,
- (ii) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €20,000 but does not exceed €30,000 shall be assessed at €1 per each €1,000,
- (iii) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €30,000 but does not exceed €40,000 shall be assessed at €2 per each €1,000,
- (iv) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €40,000 shall be assessed at €4 per each €1,000,

(d) insofar as it consists of income from any other source (including rent or any other periodical payment receivable for the possession and use of property in all lands, tenements and hereditaments), by reference to the normal weekly amount of such income.

(1A) In calculating or estimating weekly income under sub-article (1) for the purposes of the payment of an increase in –

- (a) State pension (contributory) for a qualified adult payable under Chapter 15 of Part 2 of the Principal Act, or
- (b) State pension (transition) for a qualified adult payable under Chapter 16 of Part 2 of the Principal Act, if it appears that a person in respect of whom such an increase for a qualified adult is being claimed has directly or indirectly deprived himself or herself of any income or property in order that –

- (i) an increase in that pension for a qualified adult would be paid in respect of that person, or
- (ii) an increase in that pension for a qualified adult would be paid in respect of that person at a higher rate than that which should otherwise have been paid, that income or the value of that property shall for the purposes of sub-article (1) be taken to be part of the weekly income.

(1B) Sub-article (1A) shall not apply to any assignment –

- (a) which is an assignment to a child or children of the assignor, and
- (b) which is an assignment of property consisting of a farm of land (together with or without the stock and chattels thereon) and of which the assignor is the owner and the occupier or the occupier only.

(1C) For the purposes of sub-article (1A), where the income or the value of the property taken to be part of a person's means for the purposes of that sub-article has reduced since the date of calculation, the calculation may be revised, but such a revision shall not cause the income or the value of the property taken to be part of that person's means to be increased.

(1D) For the purposes of sub-article (1B), 'assignment' includes any form of conveyance, transfer or other transaction by which a person parts with the ownership or possession of property.<sup>92</sup>

~~(2) In calculating or estimating the weekly income under sub-article (1), any sums received by way of disablement benefit under section 75, death benefit under section 83, a payment under section 186A,<sup>93</sup> –child benefit, guardian's payment (contributory), guardian's payment (non-contributory) under the Principal Act, sums received by way of assistance in the maintenance at home of disabled children under section 61 of the Health Act 1970 (No. 1 of 1970) and known as domiciliary care allowance or sums received by way of payment from the Executive in respect of a child who is boarded out shall be disregarded.~~<sup>94</sup>

(1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 2(3)(b)(ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), any periods during which the applicant was previously entitled to or in receipt of a relevant payment may be taken into account in calculating the 156 days, provided that not more than 13 weeks has elapsed since the applicant’s last relevant payment.

(2) Periods referred to in sub-article (1) during which the applicant was entitled to or in receipt of a relevant payment will only be taken into account where successive periods are not separated by more than 13 weeks.

(3) In this article “relevant payment” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2(4).

PART 2

SOCIAL INSURANCE PAYMENTS

CHAPTER 1

Illness Benefit

Persons deemed to be incapable of work.

20. (1) For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and for no other purpose, a person who is not incapable of work shall, if it is so decided under the provisions of the Principal Act, be deemed to be incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or bodily or mental disablement for any day when –

(a) he or she is under medical care in respect of such a disease or disablement and it is certified by a registered medical practitioner that by reason of such disease or disablement he or she should abstain from work and he or she does not work, or

(b) he or she is a probable source of infection with a disease specified in regulations under the Health Act 1947 (No. 28 of 1947), to be an infectious disease and he or she abstains from work in pursuance of a written order or written advice of a registered medical practitioner.

(2) A person who at the commencement of any day is, or thereafter on that day becomes, incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or bodily or mental disablement and does not work on that day shall be deemed to be so incapable throughout that day.

Days to be treated as days of incapacity for work.

20A. For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and for no other purpose, a day or days may be deemed to be a day or days of incapacity for work, and form part of a period of interruption of employment of a person, if it is a day or days falling immediately after the end date of a period of incapacity for work as determined in accordance with article 20.<sup>130</sup>

Days not to be treated as days of incapacity for work.

21. For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and subject to article 20A,<sup>131</sup> a day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity for work if it is a day in respect of which a person –

(a) fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Minister that he or she is incapable of work, or

(b) is being paid by her employer in respect of health and safety leave in accordance with section 18(4) of the Act of 1994, or

(c) does any work other than work of the nature specified in articles 24(3) and (4).

Night workers.

22. (1) Where a person is employed to work continuously from a time on any day until a time on the next following day, that person shall be regarded, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, as being, by virtue of such employment, employed –

(a) where the first day is a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday and the employment on the first day is longer than that on the second, or where the first day is a Saturday, he or she shall be regarded as being employed only on the first day, or

(b) in any other case, he or she shall be regarded as being employed only on the second day.

(2) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person –

(a) is to be treated as having been employed on 1 day only of 2 days, and

(b) throughout that part of the other of those 2 days during which that person is incapable of work, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, be deemed to be so incapable of work throughout that other of those 2 days.

(3) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person –

(a) is to be treated as having been employed on the second day only of 2 days, and

(b) throughout the day immediately preceding the first of those 2 days is incapable of work, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, be deemed to be so incapable of work throughout the first of those 2 days.

Special provision relating to delay or failure in claiming.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in article 21, a person who, in respect of any period of interruption of employment, would have been entitled to illness benefit for any day but for any delay or failure on his or her part to make or prosecute a claim, shall for the purposes of section 44 be treated as having been entitled to illness benefit for that day, but a person shall not be so treated where he or she shows that he or she did not intend, by failing to acquire or establish a right to illness benefit for that day, to avoid the necessity of re-qualifying for benefit under the said section.

Disqualifications.

24. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving illness benefit for such period not exceeding 9 weeks as may be determined under the provisions of the Principal Act if he or she –

(a) has become incapable of work through his or her own misconduct,

(b) fails without good cause to attend for, or to submit himself or herself to, medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2),

(c) fails without good cause to –

(i) comply with any instructions relating to his or her incapacity issued by a registered medical practitioner attending on him or her or to whom he or she attended for medical or other examination,

(ii) refrain from behaviour which is likely to hinder his or her recovery,

~~(iii) see an officer of the Minister and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer relating to his or her claim.~~<sup>132</sup>

(iii) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for illness benefit.<sup>133</sup>

(2) (a) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require any person who claims or is entitled to illness benefit to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(b) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in paragraph (a) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.

~~(3) A person may, with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, for a specified period of time undertake the following types of work or training—~~

~~(a) having become incapable of following his or her normal occupation, he or she is undergoing a course of training with a view to taking up some other occupation,~~

~~(b) he or she is engaged in part-time work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy.~~<sup>134</sup>

(3) Notwithstanding section 46(1A), a person shall not be disqualified for receipt of illness benefit where that person, having become incapable of following his or her normal occupation and with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, undertakes a course of training for a specified period of time with a view to taking up some other occupation.

(3A) Notwithstanding section 46(1A), where a person has—

(a) received the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, and

(b) is in receipt of illness benefit immediately before 13 February 2012 while also engaged in part-time work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy, that person may continue to receive illness benefit for the unexpired portion of the period of time specified in that written permission which occurs on or after 13 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of such specified period, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to illness benefit.

(4) A person may engage in the following limited work without prior written permission or specified period of time –

- (a) light work for which no remuneration is, or would normally be, payable,
- (b) work undertaken primarily as a part of his or her treatment while he or she is a patient in, or of, a hospital, sanatorium, or other similar institution and his or her weekly earnings in respect of that work do not exceed €50,
- (c) work under a scheme which is, in the opinion of the Minister, charitable in character and purpose and his or her weekly earnings in respect of that work do not exceed €50.

Reckoning of periods of interruption of employment.

25. For the purpose of reckoning periods of interruption of employment, and for that purpose only, any day in respect of which a person is entitled to and is in receipt of maternity benefit shall be treated as a day of incapacity for work.

Qualifying conditions – illness benefit.

26. (1) For the purposes of section 41(1)(c) –

~~(a) the prescribed period shall be the governing contribution year,~~<sup>135</sup>

(a) the prescribed period, other than in the case of a person to whom section 41(1)(c)(ia) applies, shall be the governing contribution year,<sup>136</sup>

(aa) the prescribed period for section 41(1)(c)(ia) shall be –

(i) the governing contribution year, or

(ii) the governing contribution year applicable to the illness benefit claim referred to in clause (II) of section 41(1)(c)(ia), whichever is the more favourable.<sup>137</sup>

(b) subject to sub-article (2), the prescribed reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for illness benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, shall be calculated as the total reckonable earnings or total reckonable income, as the case may be, in the prescribed period divided by the number of qualifying contributions in the said period, and

(c) in the case of a claim where –

(i) the period of interruption of employment commenced before 29 December 2003, the prescribed amount shall be €88.87, and

~~(ii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003, the prescribed amount shall be €149.99.~~<sup>138</sup>

(ii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003 and before 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €149.99, and

(iii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €300.00.<sup>139</sup>

(2) In the case of a claimant whose reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, if any, are less than €32.00, as calculated in accordance with sub-article (1)(b), he or she shall be deemed to have reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income of €32.00.

(3) In the case of a claimant whose claim, by virtue of having been entitled to or in receipt of illness benefit or jobseeker's benefit in respect of any day in the 13 week period preceding 4 January 1993, forms part of a period of interruption of employment which commenced prior to that date, the provisions of this article shall not have the effect of reducing the rate of illness benefit payable below that to which he or she was previously entitled.

Partial satisfaction of conditions for illness benefit.

27. Where a claimant would be entitled to illness benefit but for the fact that the amount of his or her reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for illness benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, does not exceed the amount prescribed in article 26(1)(c), the following provisions shall apply –

(a) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced before 29 December 2003, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 5, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit, payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

~~(b) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit, payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,~~<sup>140</sup>

- (ba) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6A, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,<sup>142</sup>
- (c) (i) any increase of illness benefit payable under section 43(1), in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the limit prescribed in article 7, shall be at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (3) of the said Schedules 5, 6 or 6A<sup>143</sup> as the case may be, and
- (ii) any increase of illness benefit payable under section 297, in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, is an amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 7, shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule, and
- (d) any increase of illness benefit in respect of a qualified child, payable under section 43(2), shall be the same as if the condition as respects the reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income had been fully satisfied.

Contribution conditions - illness benefit.

28. Where a claimant would be entitled to illness benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement contained in section 41(1)(b) that there must be qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in the governing contribution year, he or she shall be entitled to benefit if he or she –

- (a) has qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in either of the 2 contribution years preceding the governing contribution year or in a subsequent contribution year,
- (b) was immediately before claiming illness benefit in receipt of jobseeker's allowance and was a person to whom section 142(1)(a) applied, or
- (c) was immediately before claiming illness benefit in receipt of –
- (i) pre-retirement allowance, or

- (ii) invalidity pension, or
- (d) was, immediately before claiming illness benefit –
  - (i) in receipt of carer's benefit or carer's allowance,
  - (ii) a prescribed relative within the meaning of section 179 and in respect of whom an allowance is payable,
  - (iii) providing full-time care to a person who is in receipt of an increase of disablement pension under section 78 in respect of the need for constant attendance.

Partial Capacity Benefit

~~Conditions for which person assessed as having a profound restriction on capacity for work.~~

~~28A. For the purposes of Chapter 8A of Part 2 of the Principal Act, a claimant shall be regarded as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work where, in the opinion of a medical assessor, having taken into account any or all of the following—~~

- ~~(a) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner;~~
- ~~(b) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work;~~
- ~~(c) evidence based medical protocols developed in accordance with a core set of functional classifications contained in the International Classification of Functioning, as formulated by the World Health Organisation; and~~
- ~~(d) any other relevant material evidence;~~

~~the claimant is considered to have a residual capacity for work which is not more than a quarter of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.~~

~~Conditions for which person assessed as having a mild restriction on capacity for work.~~

~~28B. For the purposes of Chapter 8A of Part 2 of the Principal Act, a claimant shall be regarded as having a mild restriction on his or her capacity for work where, in the opinion of a medical assessor, having taken into account any or all of the following—~~

- ~~(a) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner;~~
- ~~(b) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work;~~

~~(c) evidence-based medical protocols developed in accordance with a core set of functional classifications contained in the International Classification of Functioning, as formulated by the World Health Organisation; and~~

~~(d) any other relevant material evidence;~~

~~the claimant is considered to have a capacity for work which is not materially different to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.~~

Reduced rates of partial capacity benefit.

~~28C. (1) Where a claimant would be entitled to partial capacity benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement in section 46A(1)(b) that he or she is assessed by a medical assessor as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, he or she shall be entitled to partial capacity benefit where he or she is assessed by a medical assessor as having—~~

~~(a) a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, or~~

~~(b) a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.~~

~~(2) For the purposes of this article, a claimant shall be regarded as having a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where, in the opinion of a medical assessor, having taken into account any or all of the following—~~

~~(a) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner;~~

~~(b) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work;~~

~~(c) evidence-based medical protocols developed in accordance with a core set of functional classifications contained in the International Classification of Functioning, as formulated by the World Health Organisation; and~~

~~(d) any other relevant material evidence;~~

~~the claimant is considered to have a residual capacity for work which is not more than a half of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work and where that restriction is not considered to be a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work.~~

~~(3) For the purposes of this article, a claimant shall be regarded as having a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where, in the opinion of a medical assessor, having taken into account any or all of the following—~~

~~(a) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner;~~

~~(b) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work;~~

~~(c) evidence based medical protocols developed in accordance with a core set of functional classifications contained in the International Classification of Functioning, as formulated by the World Health Organisation; and~~

~~(d) any other relevant material evidence;~~

~~the claimant is considered to have a residual capacity for work which is not more than four fifths of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work and where that restriction is not considered to be a profound or a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work.~~

~~(4) Where a claimant qualifies for partial capacity benefit under this article, benefit shall be paid in accordance with Schedule 7A.~~

~~Rate of partial capacity benefit payable where person requalifies for benefit.~~

~~28D. (1) In the case of a person to whom section 46A(1)(c)(ii) applies, not being a person to whom section 46C(3)(a)(ii) applies—~~

~~(a) where that person is re-assessed as having the same restriction on his or her capacity for work as had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the same rate as had been paid immediately before the exhaustion of that period of entitlement to benefit;~~

~~(b) where that person is re-assessed as having a different restriction on his or her capacity for work from that which had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the rate of benefit that would have been paid immediately before the exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement to benefit in accordance with—~~

~~(i) the revised restriction assessed on that person's capacity for work, and~~

~~(ii) that person's other circumstances.~~

~~(2) Notwithstanding sub-article (1)—~~

~~(a) any change in circumstances that would have resulted in a variation in the rate of illness benefit, invalidity pension or partial capacity benefit payable, if that person had continued receiving the said benefit or pension; or~~

~~(b) any general variation in the weekly rates of benefits, pensions, allowances or supplements under the Principal Act,~~

Conditions for which person assessed as having a profound restriction on capacity for work.

28A. (1) For the purposes of section 46A(1)(b), a person shall be regarded as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person has a residual capacity for work which is not more than a quarter of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) In assessing whether a person has a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of section 46A(1)(b), a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following –

- (a) the opinion of a medical assessor,
- (b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,
- (c) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or
- (d) any other relevant material evidence.

Conditions for which person assessed as having a mild restriction on capacity for work.

28B. (1) For the purposes of section 46A(4), a person shall be regarded as having a mild restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person has a capacity for work which is not materially different to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) In assessing whether a person has a mild restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of section 46A(4), a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following –

- (a) the opinion of a medical assessor,
- (b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,
- (c) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or
- (d) any other relevant material evidence.

Reduced rates of partial capacity benefit.

28C.(1) Where a person would be entitled to partial capacity benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement specified in section 46A(1)(b) that he or she has a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, he or she shall be entitled to partial capacity benefit where he or she has –

- (a) a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, or
- (b) a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(a), a person shall be regarded as having a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person –

- (a) has a residual capacity for work which is not more than a half of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and
- (b) has not been assessed as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(b), a person shall be regarded as having a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person –

- (a) has a residual capacity for work which is not more than four fifths of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and
- (b) has not been assessed as having a profound or a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(4) In assessing whether a person has a severe or moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of this article, a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following –

- (a) the opinion of a medical assessor,
- (b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,
- (c) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or
- (d) any other relevant material evidence.

(5) Where a person qualifies for partial capacity benefit under this article, benefit shall be paid in accordance with Schedule 7A.

Rate of partial capacity benefit payable where person requalifies for benefit.

- (a) where that person has been assessed as having the same restriction on his or her capacity for work as had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the same rate as had been paid immediately before the exhaustion of that period of entitlement to benefit,
- (b) where that person has been assessed as having a different restriction on his or her capacity for work from that which had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the rate of benefit that would have been paid immediately before the exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement to benefit in accordance with–

- (i) the revised restriction on that person's capacity for work, and
- (ii) that person's other circumstances.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-article (1) –

- (a) any change in circumstances that would have resulted in a variation in the rate of illness benefit, invalidity pension or partial capacity benefit payable, if that person had continued receiving the said benefit or pension, or
- (b) any general variation in the weekly rates of benefits, pensions, allowances or supplements under the Principal Act, shall have similar effect in relation to the rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article.<sup>146</sup>

Partial capacity benefit where person deemed to satisfy qualifying conditions for invalidity pension in accordance with section 46C(3)(b).

28E. (1) The rate of partial capacity benefit shall be determined in accordance with this article in the case of a person who, having initially qualified for partial capacity benefit by virtue of section 46A(1)(c)(i)(I), subsequently continues to qualify for partial capacity benefit by virtue of being deemed to satisfy the qualifying conditions for invalidity pension in accordance with section 46C(3)(b).

(2) The rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article shall be the rate of invalidity pension that would have been appropriate to that person's circumstances at the time that person is deemed to have satisfied the qualifying conditions for invalidity pension, reduced, where appropriate, in accordance with article 28C.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-article (2)—

- (a) any subsequent change in circumstances that would have resulted in a variation in the rate of invalidity pension or partial capacity benefit payable, if that person had continued receiving the said benefit or pension, or
- (b) any general variation in the weekly rates of benefits, pensions, allowances or supplements under the Principal Act, shall have similar effect in relation to the rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article.

Reduced duration for partial capacity benefit in certain cases.

28F. Where a person qualifies for partial capacity benefit by virtue of article 28D, the maximum period for which that benefit shall be paid shall be—

(a) 104 weeks in the case of a person ~~assessed by a medical assessor as having~~ who has<sup>147</sup> a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and

(b) 52 weeks in the case of a person ~~assessed by a medical assessor as having~~ who has<sup>148</sup> a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

Disqualifications for partial capacity benefit.

28G. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving partial capacity benefit for such period not exceeding 9 weeks if he or she fails without good cause to—

(a) attend for, or submit to, any medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2),

(b) comply with any medical advice and instructions provided by a registered medical practitioner relating to his or her incapacity,

~~(c) see an officer of the Minister and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer relating to his or her claim for partial capacity benefit.~~<sup>149</sup>

(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for partial capacity benefit.<sup>150</sup>

(2) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require any person who claims or is entitled to partial capacity benefit to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

47(1)(a) shall not be more than 16 weeks after the week in which the certificate is given.

(2) Where in respect of a claim to maternity benefit it is certified by a registered medical practitioner or otherwise to the satisfaction of an officer of the Minister that a woman has been confined, and no such certificate as is referred to in paragraph (a) of section 47(1) has been given, the said paragraph shall for the purpose of that claim, be modified and shall apply as if the said paragraph required that it had been certified by a registered medical practitioner or otherwise to the satisfaction of an officer of the Minister that the woman concerned had been confined.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (2) applies, maternity benefit shall, subject to article 35, be payable for such 24 week period as may be determined by a deciding officer.

Postponement of maternity benefit in event of hospitalisation of child.

30. (1) Subject to this article, a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may postpone the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to the postponement of maternity leave under the provisions of sections 14B or 16B (as inserted by sections 7 and 12 of the Maternity Protection (Amendment) Act 2004 (No. 28 of 2004)) of the Act of 1994.

(2) Subject to sub-article (3), a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may be entitled to resume the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to resume postponed maternity leave under the provisions of sections 14B or 16B of the Act of 1994.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (2), upon resumption of the period of entitlement to maternity leave, maternity benefit shall be paid –

(a) in one continuous period commencing not later than 7 days after the discharge of the child from hospital, and

(b) for the duration of the remaining period of maternity benefit to which that person is entitled, subject to a maximum of 12 weeks.

(4) The maximum period for which maternity benefit may be postponed under the provisions of this article is 6 months.

Volunteer development workers – qualifying conditions.

31. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to maternity benefit where the person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 48 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person's entry into insurance and ending immediately before the first day of maternity leave.

(2) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a person who ceases to be a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to maternity benefit in respect of any claim made in the benefit year in which the person returns to the State from a developing country or in the next succeeding benefit year where the person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 48 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person's entry into insurance and ending immediately before the first day of maternity leave.

Determination of income tax year and prescribed weekly amount for purposes of maternity benefit.

32. (1) The income tax year prescribed for the purposes of section 49 shall be the second last complete income tax year before the beginning of the benefit year in which the first day of maternity leave occurs.

(2) The amount prescribed for the purposes of ~~section 49(1)(c)~~ section 49(1)(a)(iii)<sup>154</sup> shall be ~~€207.80~~ ~~€221.80~~<sup>155</sup> ~~€230.30~~<sup>156</sup> ~~€225.80~~<sup>157</sup> €217.80<sup>158</sup>.

Calculation of reckonable weekly earnings.

33. For the purposes of section 49(2), the average amount of reckonable weekly earnings, reckonable weekly emoluments and reckonable weekly income of a woman in any income tax year shall be calculated as her total reckonable earnings, reckonable emoluments and reckonable income for that income tax year, divided by the number of employment contributions and self-employment contributions in the said income tax year, up to a maximum of ~~€350~~ ~~€337.50~~<sup>159</sup> €327.50<sup>160</sup>.

Medical examination to determining validity of certificate.

34. (1) Where any question arises as to the validity of a certificate by virtue of which a woman claims or is entitled to maternity benefit, she shall, unless the confinement has already occurred, on receipt of not less than 3 days notice in writing given by an officer of the Minister, submit herself to medical examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice with a view to obtaining a further certificate.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the medical examination referred to in sub-article (1) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner (if any) who is attending the woman required to submit herself to such examination.

Disqualifications.

35. ~~(1) Subject to sub-article (2), a person shall be disqualified for receiving maternity benefit for such period as may be determined by a deciding officer if, during the period for which the benefit is payable, the person engages in any occupation other than domestic duties in that person's own household.~~<sup>161</sup>

Calculation of yearly average.

~~66. In calculating the yearly average or alternative yearly average for State pension (contributory) purposes in the case of a claim made on or after 13 July 1992, a fraction of a whole number consisting of one half or more shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number and a fraction of less than one half shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~<sup>258</sup>

Saver.

67. The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate so as to disentitle to a State pension (contributory), or to reduce the rate of such pension payable to, a person who satisfies the contribution conditions for State pension (contributory) contained in section 109(1) by virtue solely of his or her insurance under the Principal Act.

CHAPTER 8

State Pension (Transition)

Interpretation.

68. In this Chapter –

“entry into insurance” in the case of a relevant person has the meaning assigned to it by section 114(5);

“relevant period” means the period over which the yearly average of contributions is calculated for State pension (transition) purposes in accordance with section 114(3);

<sup>257</sup> Art 65A and 65B inserted by Art 8 S.I. No. 321/12

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 114(4);

~~“yearly average” and “alternative yearly average” have the meanings assigned to them by section 114(3).~~<sup>259</sup>

“yearly average” has the meaning assigned to it by section 108(2).<sup>260</sup>

Reckoning of contributions under National Health Insurance Acts.

69. (1) Notwithstanding section 114(5), a person who –

(a) had not attained the age of 55 years before 5 January 1953, and

(b) had not entered into insurance before attaining that age, shall be deemed to satisfy the condition for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1)(a) if contributions as an employed contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts had been paid by or in respect of him or her, but, in any such case, the yearly average for the purposes of section 115(1)(c) shall be calculated in accordance with section 114(3).

(2) Notwithstanding section 114(5), for the purpose of satisfying the contribution condition for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1)(b), contributions paid by or in respect of an employed contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts shall, subject to article 18, be taken into account, but, in any such case, the yearly average for the purposes of section 115(1)(c) shall be calculated in accordance with section 114(3).

Period of retirement.

70. For the purposes of section 114, a period of retirement shall be –

(a) where the person has attained the age of 65 years and has not yet attained the age of 66 years, any period subsequent to his or her retirement from employment which is insurable employment or insurable self-employment under the Principal Act (other than employment which is insurable for occupational injuries benefit only) during which he or she does not engage in such employment, or

(b) where the person has attained the age of 66 years, any period subsequent to his or her attainment of that age whether he or she is engaged in employment or not.

Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions for State pension (transition) where person attains 65 years of age on or after 1 January 2013.<sup>261</sup>

70A. (1) Where a person attains the age of 65 years on or after 1 January 2013 and would be entitled to State pension (transition) but for the fact that the relevant yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, he or she shall, where the person’s yearly average is not less than 24, be entitled to State pension (transition) at a rate determined in accordance with this article.

where –

A is the rate of State pension (transition) which would be payable to the relevant person if all of the contributions specified at C in respect of that person during the relevant period were reckonable for State pension (transition) purposes,

B is the number of –

(i) employment contributions paid in respect of or credited to the relevant person, and

(ii) voluntary contributions paid by him or her, during the relevant period, which are reckonable for the purposes of the contribution conditions for entitlement to State pension (transition), and

C is the total number of –

(i) all of the employment contributions (other than employment contributions payable by a person who becomes an insured person by virtue of section 12(1)(b) only) paid in respect of or credited to the relevant person,

(ii) all of the self-employment contributions paid by him or her, and

(iii) all of the voluntary contributions paid by him or her,

during the relevant period.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-article (1), any increase payable under section 117(2), (4), (5) or (6) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 115(1)(c) had been fully satisfied.

Calculation of yearly average.

~~74. In calculating the yearly average or alternative yearly average for State pension (transition) purposes, in the case of a claim made on or after 13 July 1992, a fraction of a whole number consisting of one half or more shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number and a fraction of less than one half shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~<sup>274</sup>

Saver.

75. The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate so as to disentitle to a State pension (transition), or to reduce the rate of such pension payable to, a person who satisfies the contribution conditions for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1) by virtue solely of his or her insurance under the Principal Act.

CHAPTER 9

Invalidity Pension

---

<sup>274</sup> Art 74 deleted by Art 8(d) S.I. No. 573/12

Definition of permanently incapable of work.

76. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 118, a person shall be regarded as being permanently incapable of work if immediately before the date of claim for the said pension

(a) he or she has been continuously incapable of work for a period of one year and it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the person is likely to continue to be incapable of work for at least a further year, or

(b) he or she is incapable of work and evidence is adduced to establish to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the incapacity for work is of such a nature that the likelihood is that the person will be incapable of work for life.

(2) Sub-article (1) shall not apply where it is subsequently shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the person is no longer likely to continue to be incapable of work for at least a further year or for life, as the case may be.

Conditions for receipt of invalidity pension.

77. For the purposes of section 119(2)(b), the “relevant date” means any date subsequent to the commencement of a period of incapacity for work where evidence is adduced to establish to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the incapacity for work is of such a nature that the likelihood is that the person will be incapable of work for life.

Disqualification.

78. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving invalidity pension if and so long as he or she fails without good cause to –

(a) ~~attend for~~ attend for or submit to any<sup>275</sup> medical or other examination at such time or place as may be required by an officer of the Minister, provided that he or she has been given not less than 7 days notice in writing,

(b) obey any instructions, relating to his or her behaviour or any other matter concerning his or her incapacity, of a medical practitioner attending on him or her or whom he or she has attended for medical or other examination in accordance with paragraph (a),

(c) ~~see an officer of the Minister and answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer relating to his or her claim.~~<sup>276</sup>

(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for invalidity pension.<sup>277</sup>

~~(2) A person in receipt of or entitled to invalidity pension shall not engage in work whether on his or her own account or on account of another person except as permitted under sub-article (3).~~<sup>278</sup>

~~(3) A person may, with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, for a specified period of time undertake the following types of work or training—~~

~~(a) having become permanently incapable of following his or her usual occupation, a course of training with a view to taking up some other occupation,~~

~~(b) work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy,~~

~~(c) light work for which no remuneration is or would ordinarily be payable.<sup>279</sup>~~

(3) Notwithstanding section 118(3A), a person shall not be disqualified for receipt of invalidity pension where that person, with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, undertakes for a specified period of time the following types of work or training—

(a) having become permanently incapable of following his or her usual occupation, a course of training with a view to taking up some other occupation, or

(b) light work for which no remuneration is or would ordinarily be payable.

(3A) Notwithstanding section 118(3A), where a person has—

(a) received the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, and

(b) is in receipt of invalidity pension immediately before 13 February 2012 while also engaged in work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy, that person may continue to receive invalidity pension for the unexpired portion of the period of time specified in that written permission which occurs on or after 13 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of such specified period, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to invalidity pension.

CHAPTER 11

Deserted Wife's Benefit

Interpretation.

84. In this Chapter –

“deserted wife's benefit” means a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “relevant payment” in section 178(1);

“relevant period” means the period over which the yearly average of contributions per contribution year is calculated for the purposes of deserted wife's benefit in accordance with section 178A(2)(b)(ii);

~~“yearly average” means the average per contribution year of contribution weeks in respect of which the husband or claimant has qualifying contributions or credited contributions in the appropriate period specified in section 178A(2)(b).~~<sup>292</sup>

“yearly average” has the meaning assigned to it by section 178A(3A).<sup>293</sup>

Conditions for receipt of deserted wife's benefit.

85. A payment under paragraph (a) in the definition of “relevant payment” in section 178(1) shall be made, subject to the following –

(a) a woman who has been deserted by her husband shall make and continue to make appropriate efforts, in the particular circumstances, to obtain maintenance from her husband, and

~~(b) she and any person shall not cohabit as husband and wife.~~<sup>294</sup>

(b) she shall not be a cohabitant.<sup>295</sup>

Income limit.

~~86. (1) The amount prescribed for the purposes of section 178A(1)(a) shall be €12,697.38.~~<sup>296</sup>

Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions.

87. (1) Subject to article 89, where a woman would be entitled to deserted wife's benefit but for the fact that the yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, she shall be entitled to deserted wife's benefit, where the yearly average in the relevant period is not less than 24, at a rate determined in accordance with sub-article (2).

(2) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has not attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (2) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (3) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

Special partial payment.

88. (1) Subject to article 89, in the case of a person who became an employed contributor as a consequence of the coming into operation of section 12 of the Act of 1973 having ceased to be an employed contributor and where there would be entitlement to deserted wife's benefit by virtue of the person's or the person's ~~spouse's~~ husband's<sup>299</sup> social insurance contribution record but for the fact that the relevant contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) is not satisfied and there is no entitlement to benefit under article 87, she shall be entitled to deserted wife's benefit, where the yearly average in the relevant period is not less than 5, at a rate determined in accordance with sub-article (2).

(2) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has not attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, ~~fractions of whole numbers being disregarded,~~<sup>300</sup> deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (2) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, fractions of whole numbers being disregarded, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (3) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if

~~(2) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies, any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the conditions set out in section 178A(2) had been fully satisfied.~~

Calculation of yearly average.

~~90. In calculating the yearly average for the purposes of deserted wife's benefit (other than benefit under article 88), a fraction of a whole number consisting of one half or more shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number and a fraction of less than one half shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~<sup>304</sup>

Transitional payment.<sup>305</sup>

90A. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), where a woman who has been in receipt of deserted wife's benefit for a period of 52 consecutive weeks, ceases to be entitled to the payment by virtue of her gross annual earnings exceeding the amount specified in article 86, she shall, notwithstanding the provisions of article 86, continue to be entitled to a payment under this article, calculated in accordance with sub-article (3), for a period of 6 months commencing from the date on which her gross annual earnings exceed the amount specified in article 86.

(2) A payment referred to in sub-article (1), may be made where a woman continues to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to deserted wife's benefit other than that specified in section 178A(1)(a).

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies, the amount payable shall be equal to 50 per cent of the weekly rate payable to the woman immediately before the day on which she ceases to be entitled to deserted wife's benefit and such amount shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is not a multiple of 5 cent or 10 cent.

(4) Where a woman has been entitled to a payment in accordance with sub-article (1) for a continuous period of 6 months she shall not be entitled to any further payment under that sub-article.

~~specified in section 173(3), calculated in accordance with sub-article (2), for a period of 6 months commencing from the date on which, but for this article, that person would have ceased to be so entitled.~~

~~(2) Subject to sub-article (3), in the case of a person to whom sub-article (1) applies, one-parent family payment shall be payable at an amount equal to 50 per cent of the weekly rate payable to the qualified parent immediately before the day on which, but for this article, the qualified parent would have ceased to be entitled to the payment.~~

~~(3) The amount payable in accordance with sub-article (2) shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is not a multiple of 5 cent or 10 cent.~~

~~(4) Where a person has been entitled to a payment in accordance with sub-article (1) for a period of 6 months (whether continuous or not) he or she shall not be entitled to any further payment under that sub-article.~~<sup>365</sup>

Transfer of maintenance.

130. For the purposes of section 358, a person in receipt of one-parent family payment shall be liable to transfer to the Minister payments made to that person in compliance with an order of the Court insofar as they exceed the lesser of €4,952 per annum in respect of housing costs or the annual housing costs actually incurred by ~~the qualified parent~~ that person<sup>366</sup>.

CHAPTER 4

Carer's Allowance

Interpretation.

131. In this Chapter -

“carer” has the meaning assigned to it by section 179;

“institution” means –

(a) a hospital, convalescent home or home for persons suffering from physical or mental disability or accommodation ancillary thereto and any other similar establishment providing residence, maintenance or care for the persons therein, or

(b) a private dwelling wherein a person is boarded out under an arrangement with the Executive;

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 179.

Conditions to be satisfied by carer.

132. Subject to article 136(c), the conditions prescribed for the purposes of section 180 are that the carer, being resident in the State –

<sup>365</sup> Art 129 revoked by Art 5 S.I. No. 90 of 2011

- (a) is not engaged in employment or self-employment outside his or her home,
- (b) has attained the age of 18 years, and
- (c) is not residing in an institution.

Conditions to be satisfied by non-resident carer.

133. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) the conditions prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “carer” contained in section 179(1) are that –

- (a) a direct system of communication must exist between the carer’s residence and that of the relevant person, and
- (b) the relevant person is not already receiving full-time care and attention within his or her own residence from a person other than the applicant.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(a) a system of communication shall include a telephone or alarm system.

~~Prescribed manner for certification of disability.~~

~~134. The prescribed manner for certification by a medical practitioner of the nature and extent of a relevant person’s disability shall be in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.~~<sup>367</sup>

Medical examination.

135. (1) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 3 days notice in writing, require a relevant person to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (1) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.

(3) Subject to sub-article (4), a carer shall be disqualified for receiving carer’s allowance if and for so long as the relevant person fails without good cause to attend for or submit to medical examination in accordance with this article.

(4) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (3) shall not commence earlier than the day on which the failure to attend for or submit to the medical examination occurs.

~~Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention.~~

~~136. A carer may, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 3 and this Chapter, continue to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where –~~

- ~~(a) he or she would qualify for payment of an allowance but for the fact that either the carer or the relevant person is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution for a period of not longer than 13 weeks, or~~
- ~~(b) the relevant person is attending –~~

~~(ii) a non-residential place of day care approved by the Minister for Health and Children, or~~

~~(e) subject to paragraph (d), where it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that adequate provision has been made for the care of the relevant person, a carer may—~~

~~(i) engage in employment, or~~

~~(ii) engage in self-employment, or~~

~~(iii) undertake such training or courses of education as the Minister may from time to time determine.~~

~~(d) the aggregate duration of the activities outside the home referred to in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) shall not exceed 15 hours per week.<sup>368</sup>~~

Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention

136. (1) A carer may, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 3 and this Chapter, continue to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where—

(a) he or she would qualify for payment of an allowance but for the fact that either the carer or the relevant person is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution for a period not longer than 13 weeks,

(b) (i) subject to subparagraph (ii), he or she would qualify for payment of an allowance but for the fact that the relevant person has been permanently admitted to an institution,

(ii) the maximum period for payment of the allowance, under subparagraph (i), does not exceed 12 weeks,

(c) the relevant person is attending—

(i) a non-residential course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation recognised by the Minister for Health for the purposes of the provision of such training), or

(ii) a non-residential place of day care approved by the Minister for Health, or

CHAPTER 5

Disability Allowance

Specified disability.

137. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 210, a person shall be regarded as being substantially restricted in undertaking suitable employment by reason of a specified disability where he or she suffers from an injury, disease, congenital deformity or physical or mental illness which has continued or, in the opinion of a deciding officer or an appeals officer, may reasonably expect to continue for a period of at least 1 year.

(2) A person shall not be regarded as being substantially restricted in undertaking suitable employment where it is subsequently shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that he or she is no longer likely to continue to be substantially restricted in the undertaking of employment for a period of at least 1 year.

Disqualification.

138. A person shall be disqualified for receiving disability allowance if and so long as he or she fails without good cause to –

(a) ~~attend for~~ attend for or submit to any<sup>370</sup> medical examination or other examination at such time or place as may be required by an officer of the Minister, provided that he or she has been given not less than 7 days notice in writing,

(b) obey any instructions, relating to his or her behaviour or any other matter concerning his or her disability, of a medical practitioner attending on him or her or whom he or she has attended for medical or other examination in accordance with paragraph (a),

~~(c) see an officer of the Minister and answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer relating to his or her claim.~~<sup>371</sup>

(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for disability allowance.<sup>372</sup>

<sup>372</sup> Art. 138(c) substituted by art. 3 and Sch. to S.I. No. 179 of 2015

Temporary residence.

139. A person who is ordinarily resident in an institution shall be entitled to receive disability allowance in respect of any week which forms part of a period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks in which that person is, under an arrangement administered by the said institution, temporarily resident outside of the institution for a period of consecutive days numbering not more than 3 and not less than 2 in respect of each such week.

Holidays.

140. (1) Disability allowance may be paid to a person who is normally resident in an institution in respect of any week during which that person is temporarily resident elsewhere while absent from the institution during a period on holidays under an arrangement administered by the said institution.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1), “period on holidays” means a period consisting of at least 3 but not exceeding 13 consecutive weeks taken on holidays within the State in a calendar year.

Chapter 5A<sup>373</sup>

Domiciliary Care Allowance

Interpretation

140A. In this Chapter –

“institution”, “qualified child” and “qualified person” have the meanings assigned to them in section 186B.

~~Prescribed manner for certification of disability and duration of full-time care and attention.~~

~~140B. The prescribed manner of certification by a registered medical practitioner of –~~

~~(a) the nature and extent of the qualified child’s disability, and~~

~~(b) the likely duration of full-time care and attention required,~~

~~shall be in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.<sup>374</sup>~~

Normal residence of qualified child

140C. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) the person with whom a qualified child normally resides shall be determined in accordance with Article 13 of the Principal Regulations

(2) Except as provided for in sub-article (3)<sup>375</sup> in Article 140D a qualified child who resides with a person for less than 5 days in any one week shall not be regarded as normally residing with that person for the purposes of domiciliary care allowance.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-article (2), and subject to articles 140D and 140E, where, in accordance with the terms of a joint custody agreement, a qualified child resides with and is cared for, in turn, by two persons who are living apart, and one or other of those persons would be a qualified person but for the residence condition in sub-article (2), domiciliary care allowance shall be payable in accordance with sub-article (4).<sup>376</sup>

(4) For the purposes of sub-article (3), the qualified child shall be regarded as residing with the person nominated in writing to an officer of the Minister, by both persons, as the qualified person for the purposes of this sub-article, and the allowance shall be paid to that person, and where no such nomination is provided, domiciliary care allowance shall be paid to the person to whom child benefit is payable in respect of that child.<sup>377</sup>

Payment in respect of temporary part-time residence in an institution

140D. (1) Notwithstanding article 140C for the purposes of section 186E(1), domiciliary care allowance shall be payable in respect of a qualified child who is temporarily resident with a qualified person for not less than 2 days and not more than 4 days in any one week in which the child would otherwise be regarded as residing in an institution.

(2) In the case a qualified child to whom sub-article (1) applies, the monthly amount of domiciliary care allowance payable shall be 50 per cent of the amount set out in Part 5 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act.

(3) The amount payable in accordance with sub-article (1) shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent.

Payment in respect of temporary full-time residence in an institution

140E. For the purpose of section 186E (3), domiciliary care allowance shall continue to be payable in respect of a qualified child who has been admitted to an institution on a full-time basis for the purpose of receiving medical or other treatment of a temporary nature for not more than 13 weeks in a 12 month period.

Medical examination and disqualification

140F. (1) An officer of the Minister may, giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require that a qualified person shall submit such medical or other evidence in respect of the qualified child in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.

(2) An officer of the Minister may, giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require that a qualified child shall attend for or submit to such medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Where a medical examination under sub-article (2) is deemed necessary a notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (2) shall be sent to the qualified person.

(4) Subject to sub-article (5), a qualified person shall be disqualified for receiving domiciliary care allowance-

(a) where the evidence referred to in sub-article (1) is not submitted,

or

- (b) if and for so long as the qualified child in respect of whom domiciliary care allowance is payable fails without good cause to attend for or submit to such medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2).

(5) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (4) shall not commence earlier than the day on which the failure to submit the medical or other evidence requested or the failure to attend for or submit to the medical examination occurs.<sup>378</sup>

Miscellaneous Provisions for Assessment of Means

Exemption from assessment of property.

~~141. (1) The weekly value of property mentioned in Rules 1(1) of Part 2, 1(1) of Part 3 and 1(1) of Part 5 of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act, being property which though capable of investment or profitable use is not invested or put to profitable use by a person, shall not be regarded as the means of a person—~~

~~(a) in the case of the house in which the claimant or beneficiary ordinarily resides, where the claimant or beneficiary vacates that house—~~

~~(i) on a temporary basis, or~~

~~(ii) indefinitely, as a consequence of his or her old age or incapacity,~~

~~or~~

~~(b) in any other case, where the claimant or beneficiary has offered the property for sale, for the period, not exceeding 2 years from the date on which the property was offered for sale, in which the property remains unsold.~~

141. (1) The weekly value of property mentioned in Rules 1(1) of Part 2, 1(1) of Part 3 and 1(1) of Part 5 of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act, being property which though capable of investment or profitable use is not invested or put to profitable use by a person, shall not include the weekly value of a house in which the claimant or beneficiary ordinarily resides or resided but has vacated -

(a) on a temporary basis, or

(b) indefinitely, as a consequence of his or her old age or incapacity, or

(c) where the house is offered for sale by the claimant or beneficiary, for a period not exceeding 2 years from the date on which the house was vacated and remains unsold.<sup>379</sup>

(2) In this article, “house” means a dwelling house or part of a dwelling house which is, or has been occupied by the claimant or beneficiary as his or her principal residence or land which he or

PART 4

Child Benefit

Normal residence.

159. For the purposes of Part 4, the person with whom a qualified child shall be regarded as normally residing shall be determined in accordance with the following Rules:

1. Subject to Rule 2, a qualified child, who is resident with more than one of the following persons, his or her – mother,

step-mother,
father,

step-father,

shall be regarded as normally residing with the person first so mentioned and with no other person.

2. Where the persons referred to in Rule 1 are resident in separate households, the qualified child shall be regarded as normally residing with the person with whom he or she resides for the majority of the time.

~~3. A qualified child who is resident with one only of the persons mentioned in Rule 1, shall be regarded as normally residing with that person and with no other person provided that, where that person is the father and he is cohabiting with a woman as husband and wife, this Rule shall not apply in respect of the child where the father so elects and, on such an election, the child shall be regarded as normally residing with the woman with whom the father is cohabiting.~~<sup>460</sup>

3. A qualified child who is resident with one only of the persons mentioned in Rule 1, shall be regarded as normally residing with that person and with no other person provided that, where that person is the father and he is cohabiting with a woman as husband and wife, this Rule shall not apply in respect of the child where the father so elects and, on such an election, the child shall be regarded as normally residing with the woman with whom the father is cohabiting.<sup>461</sup>

~~4. A qualified child, who is resident elsewhere than with a parent or a step-parent and whose mother is alive, shall, where his or her mother is entitled to his or her custody whether solely or jointly with any other person, be regarded as normally residing with his or her mother and with no other person.~~<sup>462</sup>

4. Subject to Rule 8, a qualified child, who is resident elsewhere than with a parent or a step-parent and whose mother is alive, shall, where his or her mother is entitled to his or her custody whether solely or jointly with any other person, be regarded as normally residing with his or her mother and with no other person.<sup>463</sup>

~~5. ## CHAPTER 2

Payments

Manner of payment.

~~192. (1) Benefit shall be paid in accordance with a decision under the provisions of the Principal Act as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter in such manner as the Minister may determine~~

~~in any particular class of case.~~

~~(2) Subject to sub-article (3), the manner of payment under sub-article (1) shall comprise—~~

~~(a) an order payable at a post office designated by the claimant or qualified person, as the case may be, or where the Minister considers it appropriate, at a post office designated by the Minister;~~

~~(b) a cheque issued by post or otherwise to a claimant or beneficiary at his or her place of residence;~~

~~(c) by direct credit transfer to an account nominated by the claimant, beneficiary or qualified person and where benefit is so paid, the claimant, beneficiary or qualified person shall be deemed to have received such payment;~~

~~(d) in cash payable at a post office, or~~

~~(e) an order payable at a bank designated by the qualified person.~~

~~(3) The Minister may arrange for the payment of benefit otherwise than in accordance with sub-article (2) where the circumstances so warrant.~~<sup>602</sup>

Manner of payment

192. (1) Where, in accordance with a decision under the Principal Act or regulations made under that Act, benefit is payable to a claimant or beneficiary or to any other person authorised to receive payment of benefit under the said Act or regulations (in this article referred to as the 'authorised person'), that benefit shall be paid—

(a) as soon as practicable after such decision is made, and

(b) in the manner provided for in this article.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1), benefit shall be paid—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), by means of any one of the following methods as may be determined by the Minister in relation to any particular case or class of case:

(i) by cash payable at a post office designated by the claimant, beneficiary or authorised person, as the case may be, or where the Minister considers it appropriate, at a post office designated by the Minister;

(ii) by cheque;

(iii) by electronic funds transfer to an account nominated by the claimant, beneficiary or authorised person, as the case may be, and which is of a type determined by the Minister to be appropriate,

or

(a) where, by virtue of the revised decision, the rate of child benefit will be increased –

(i) from the 1st day of the month following that in which the additional child becomes normally resident with the claimant, provided that the claim is made within 6 months commencing on the 1st day of that month,

(ii) in any other case, from the 1st day of the month following that in which the claim is made, or

(b) where, by virtue of the revised decision, child benefit will be disallowed or reduced –

(i) from the 1st day of the month following that in which there was a change of circumstances in any case where in relation to such change of circumstances there was a statement or representation (whether written or oral) which was to the knowledge of the person making it false or misleading in any material respect or there was any wilful concealment of a material fact,

(ii) in any other case, from the 1st day of such month as a deciding officer or appeals officer may determine having regard to the change of circumstances.

Payable orders.

~~198. (1) In the case of benefit payable by means of an order, the Minister shall cause arrangements to be made whereby, on furnishing such evidence as to identity and such other particulars as may be required, a claimant or beneficiary shall obtain a book of orders.~~

~~(2) A book of orders issued to any person shall remain the property of the Minister.~~

~~(3) Any person having a book of orders or any unpaid orders in respect of benefit shall at the request of an officer of the Minister, deliver such orders to such person as the officer may direct.~~

~~(4) In the case of child benefit, where a book of orders has been lost or destroyed, the person to whom the book was issued shall notify the Minister immediately in writing of such loss or destruction, and the Minister may issue a new book to that person, subject to such conditions as he or she thinks fit.~~<sup>630</sup>

Extinguishment of right to payment.

199. (1) Subject to sub-articles (2) and (3), where benefit has been awarded and is being paid to a person, the right to any sum payable by way of the benefit shall be extinguished where payment of the benefit is not obtained within 6 months.

(2) Sub-article (1) shall not apply in respect of any benefit where a deciding officer or an appeals officer is satisfied that entitlement to the payment exists and where -

(a) the sum payable is not received within the time allowed in sub-article (1) due to the mental or other incapacity of the beneficiary or his or her approved agent, or

(3) Every nomination under sub-article (2)—

(a) shall be made to the Minister in the form for the time being approved by him or her, and

(b) may be revoked by the person to whom benefit is payable on giving notice in writing of that fact to the Minister.

(4) The Minister may withdraw his or her consent to a nomination under sub-article (2) where he or she considers that the circumstances so warrant.<sup>648</sup>

Persons unable to act.

~~202. (1) Where a claimant or beneficiary is—~~

~~(a) unable for the time being to act, or~~

~~(b) under the age of 16 years, the Minister may, subject to such conditions as he or she thinks fit, appoint some other person to exercise, on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary, any right or power which the claimant or beneficiary may be entitled to exercise under the Principal Act and any such person may receive and deal with any sum payable by way of benefit on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary.~~

~~(2) An appointment made under sub-article (1) shall terminate on the day on which the Minister receives notice that a Committee of the estate of the claimant or beneficiary has been appointed.~~

~~(3) Anything required to be done by a claimant or beneficiary in relation to benefit may be done as respects a claimant or beneficiary who is unable to act, by the person appointed under sub-article (1) to act on his or her behalf.~~

Persons unable to manage financial affairs.

202. (1) Subject to sub-article (6) this article applies to a claimant or beneficiary who—

(a) is under 16 years of age, or

(b) subject to sub-article (2) is certified by a registered medical practitioner in the prescribed form, to be a person who is unable for the time being to manage his or her own financial affairs.

(2) For the purpose of this article, the circumstances in which a person is deemed to be unable to manage his or her own financial affairs may include one or more of the following:

(a) an inability to understand the basis of possible entitlements to benefit;

(4) (a) Where a claimant or beneficiary within the meaning of subarticle (1) is or is likely to be resident in an institution for a continuous period of at least four weeks and where no other suitable person is available and willing to be appointed under sub-article (3), the Minister may appoint a representative of the institution to exercise on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary any right or power otherwise exercisable under the Principal Act by the claimant or beneficiary.

(b) Where a representative of an institution is appointed pursuant to paragraph (a), payment of benefit may be made directly to a central account of the Executive.

(5) The Minister shall not appoint a person under this article to act on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary if that person has been—

(a) adjudicated a bankrupt unless the bankruptcy has been discharged or the adjudication annulled,

(b) convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or

(c) convicted of an offence against the person or property of the claimant or beneficiary concerned.

(6) This article does not apply to a claimant or beneficiary within the meaning of sub-article (1)(b) who—

(a) is a ward of court, or

(b) has appointed a person to be his or her attorney under an enduring power of attorney and—

(i) the attorney is not prohibited or restricted by the terms of the power from performing any matter to which this article applies, and

(ii) the enduring power of attorney has been registered and the registration has not been cancelled.

(7) An appointment made under sub-article (3) or (4) shall terminate on the day on which the Minister receives notice that a Committee of the estate of the claimant or beneficiary has been appointed.

(8) Anything required to be done by a claimant or beneficiary in relation to benefit may be done as respects a claimant or beneficiary, who is unable to act, by the person appointed under this article to act on his or her behalf.

(9) In this article, "institution" has the same meaning as in section 224(1).<sup>651</sup>

Obligations of appointed person.

202A. (1) Where a person is appointed under article 202(3) or (4) he or she shall have a duty to act in the best interests of the claimant or beneficiary and shall—

Distribution of sum payable on death.

207. (1) On the death of a claimant or beneficiary any sum payable in respect of any benefit including a sum payable on death within the meaning of article 206(2) may be paid or distributed by the Minister, without probate or other proof of title of the personal representative of the deceased as follows –

(a) where the claimant or beneficiary dies leaving a will or other testamentary writing, the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among such of the persons appearing to be beneficially entitled thereto under the said will or testamentary writing as the Minister thinks proper and that to the exclusion of all others, without prejudice to any remedy which such others may have for recovery of the sum so paid or distributed as aforesaid against the persons receiving that sum,

(b) where the claimant or beneficiary dies intestate, the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among such persons as appear to the Minister to be beneficially entitled thereto, whether as next-of-kin or otherwise according to law or as creditors (including any person entitled to be paid or repaid the funeral expenses of the claimant or beneficiary) or to or among such of the said persons as the Minister thinks fit and that to the exclusion of all others.

(2) The receipt by any person of or over the age of 16 years of any sum paid in accordance with this article shall be a good discharge to the Minister (and, in the case of benefit under Part 2, to the Minister and to the Social Insurance Fund) for the sum so paid.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that any sum or part thereof payable under this article is needed for the benefit of any person under the age of 16, he or she may obtain a good discharge therefor by paying the sum or part thereof to a person over that age who satisfies the Minister that he or she will apply the sum so paid for the benefit of the person under the age of 16.

(4) The Minister upon making any payment in accordance with this article shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any sum so paid.

Payments after death.

(4) Subject to sub-article (5), a continued payment shall be subject to the following conditions –

(a) evidence of the death of a deceased beneficiary shall be furnished by or on behalf of the related person,

(b) the provisions of Chapter 4 of this Part shall not apply to continued payments.

(5) The application of paragraph (4) shall not be read as entitling a related person to a continued payment at a higher rate than the rate of benefit which had been payable to the deceased beneficiary.

(6) (a) In any case where the amount of the continued payment is less than the amount of the pension, allowance or benefit which, but for the provisions of section 248(2)(f) would have been payable for the same period, the provisions of the said section shall not apply, but any amount already paid by way of continued payment shall be treated as payment on account of such pension, allowance or benefit.

(b) In any case where payment has been made to a related person of any pension, allowance or benefit referred to in section 248(2)(f) in respect of the whole or part of the period in respect of which a continued payment is due the amount so paid by way of such pension, allowance or benefit shall be treated as having been paid on account of the continued payment.

(7) In the case of ~~family income supplement~~ working family payment<sup>667</sup>, where a claimant or beneficiary dies, payment of the supplement shall continue to be made for a period of 6 weeks, or for the remainder of the 52 week period of payment under section 230 whichever is the lesser, after the date of death to a person who satisfies the Minister that he or she will apply the supplement for the benefit of any surviving member of the family in respect of which the supplement was payable.

Offences.

Payment in respect of loss of purchasing power.

212. (1) Payment in respect of the loss of purchasing power shall be made to a person who makes a claim for any benefit (including any increase thereof) where –

(a) the payment of his or her claim is delayed for a period exceeding 12 months, and

(b) a deciding officer or an appeals officer, decides that the delay was due solely or mainly to circumstances within the control of the Department, and

(c) the person has not contributed to the delay.

(2) A payment under sub-article (1) shall be made in respect of such period as a deciding officer or an appeals officer decides that the delay continued, having regard to the facts of the case.

Calculation of amount.

213. Payment to a person by virtue of article 212 shall be the sum of –

- (a) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for the period of 12 months from the date of commencement of the relevant period by the inflation factor, plus
- (b) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for each calendar quarterly period or part of quarterly period thereafter, where the period occurs prior to 1 January 1997, by the inflation factor, plus
- (c) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for each calendar month thereafter, where the period occurs on or after 1 January 1997, by the inflation factor.

Delay in issue of purchasing power payment.

214. In the case of a person to whom article 212 applies and to whom arrears have issued in advance of the payment in respect of the loss of purchasing power, the payment calculated in accordance with article 212, shall be increased, where appropriate, by the inflation factor.

Payment of an amount of costs.

215. Where a person to whom article 212 applies has necessarily incurred incidental expenses as a result of the delay in payment of the benefit, he or she shall be entitled to a payment of the expenses in so far as they exceed €12.70 and subject to a maximum of €63.50 provided he or she produces such evidence as may be required of such expenditure.

Rounding.

216. The amount payable under this Chapter shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is not a multiple of 5 cent or 10 cent.

Payment of maternity, health and safety, adoptive or paternity benefit at reduced rate with other social welfare payments

223A. (1) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and (2) of section 247, where in respect of any period maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit and any payment specified in sub-article (7) would be payable to or in respect of a person, such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit, as the case may be, and such payment specified in sub-article (7) may, subject to article 223E, be paid, in the manner provided for in this article, to or in respect of that person during that period.

(2) Subject to sub-articles (3) to (7), where maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit is payable in accordance with sub-article (1) in respect of any period—

- (a) no increase in that benefit shall be paid in respect of a qualified child during that period, and
- (b) such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit (exclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child, where appropriate) shall be reduced by half during that period.

(3) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of—

- (a) widow's (contributory) pension, widower's (contributory) pension, surviving civil partner's (contributory) pension or a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1) at a rate less than that specified in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act, or civil partner's (non-contributory) pension, one-parent family payment or a payment referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1) at a rate less than that specified in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act by reason of means, and during that period that person is also entitled to maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit, the amount payable to that person by way of such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit shall be calculated in accordance with sub-articles (4) and (5).

(4) The amount of maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit payable to or in respect of a person to whom sub-article (3) applies shall be the aggregate of—

(a) the difference between the amount of such reduced pension or payment specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-article (3) and the maximum scheduled rate of such pension or payment, as the case may be, appropriate to that person's circumstances, and

(b) one-half of the rate of maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit, as the case may be, (exclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child, where appropriate) payable to that person,

but the amount of benefit so payable shall not exceed—

(i) in the case of maternity benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 49 and, where paragraph (b) of section 49(1) applies, the rate of such maternity benefit shall be inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child,

(ii) in the case of health and safety benefit, the rate of such benefit appropriate to that person's circumstances (inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child),

(iii) in the case of adoptive benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 60 and, where paragraph (b) of section 60(1) applies, the rate of such adoptive benefit shall be inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child, and

(iv) in the case of paternity benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 61D (inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child).

(5) In sub-article (4) 'scheduled rate' means—

(a) the rate of widow's (contributory) pension, widower's (contributory) pension, surviving civil partner's (contributory) pension or a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1), appropriate to the person's circumstances, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act, or

(b) the rate of widow's (non-contributory) pension, widower's (non-contributory) pension, surviving civil partner's (non-contributory) pension, one-parent family payment or a payment referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1), appropriate to the person's circumstances, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act, as the case may be.

(6) Notwithstanding sub-articles (1) to (5), maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit shall not be payable to or in respect of a person in respect of any period during which that person is in receipt of a payment specified in sub-article (7) and is also in receipt of a blind pension payable in accordance with article 224.

(7) The following payments are specified for the purposes of sub-articles (1) and (6)—

- (a) death benefit by way of widow's pension, widower's pension or surviving civil partner's pension,
- (b) widow's (contributory) pension, widower's (contributory) pension or surviving civil partner's (contributory) pension,
- (c) a payment referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1),

~~(v) any maintenance payments being paid by the liable relative in respect of his or her spouse and his or her child or children, where such maintenance payments have been taken into account in deciding the amount of allowance payable to the said spouse or parent of his or her children,~~

~~(vi) an amount, not exceeding €4,952 per annum, of any rent or repayment of a loan entered into solely for the purpose of defraying money employed in the purchase, repair or essential improvement of the residence in which the liable relative is residing but where the liable relative has remarried or is co-habiting as husband and wife with another person who is in employment or self-employment, the amount allowed shall be one half of the rent or repayment, not exceeding €2,476 per annum.~~<sup>773</sup>

(v) any maintenance payments being paid by the liable relative in respect of his or her spouse or civil partner, as the case may be, and in respect of his or her child or children, where such maintenance payments have been taken into account in deciding the amount of allowance payable to the said spouse, civil partner or parent of his or her children,

(vi) an amount, not exceeding €4,952 per annum, of any rent or repayment of a loan entered into solely for the purpose of defraying money employed in the purchase, repair or essential improvement of the residence in which the liable relative is residing, but where the liable relative is married, has entered into a civil partnership or is a cohabitant and his or her spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, is in employment or self-employment, the amount allowed shall be one-half of the rent or repayment, not exceeding €2,476 per annum.<sup>774</sup>

(2) The amount calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) of sub-article (1) shall be divided by 52.

(3) The amount calculated in accordance with sub-articles (1) and (2) shall be further reduced by —

(a) a weekly amount equal to the sum of the amount specified in column 2 of reference 7 of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act plus €19.05, and

(b) the amount specified in column 4 of reference 7 of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act in respect of each qualified child of the liable relative normally residing with him or her and for whom he or she has the main care and charge.

Saver.

252. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), article 251 shall not have the effect of increasing the amount payable by the liable relative immediately before the commencement of these Regulations, in any case where the amount payable was calculated in accordance with article 4 of the Social Welfare (Liable Relative) Regulations 1999 (S.I. No. 138 of 1999).
